

Jennifer joined Lead Star in 2015 and serves as our Program Coordinator. In her role, she coordinates and supports many aspects of the Lead Star business, including travel and event planning, client support, marketing coordination, and overall administrative assistance for our entire team.

Jenn's passion for helping others, as well as her dedication to being a leader in her own community, led her to join Lead Star. Prior to joining the Lead Star team, Jenn spent the past decade working at Wells Fargo Advisors assisting teams of Financial Advisors with client marketing and service. She received a B.S. and M.Ed. from Elmira College, and taught elementary school for a number of years. Jenn lives with her husband and two children in Glen Allen, Virginia. In her spare time, she enjoys traveling, reading, and running.
