

ANDREA TECCE, PARTNER

Andrea joined Lead Star in 2017, following a distinguished 25-year career at Navigant Consulting. Her proven success and leadership in financial management, strategic and business operations, resource management, and her talent in coaching and developing large teams will be an asset to Lead Star's clients.

Her passion for leadership development started in 2008 when she launched the DC and NY chapters for the Women's Leadership & Mentoring Alliance (WLMA). Since that time, she has earned a reputation as a trusted mentor to many, a seasoned business manager and a formidable networker, relationship manager, business developer, testifier and all around exemplary practitioner.

Andrea is a CPA and CFF. She received her BBA in Accounting from the College of William & Mary. Andrea has served on several boards, including the DC Women's Bar Association Foundation and WLMA Executive Committee. She currently serves as a board member for the Tilton School, National Institute for Trial Advocacy (NITA) and UPWARD Advisory Council.

Andrea lives with her husband and two sons in Arlington, Virginia. In her spare time, she can be found enjoying the outdoors.

CONTACT ANDREA

info@leadstar.us

800-381-7780